Paris in London

The necessity of going to Paris to be 'au fait' with Dame Fashion's latest conceits is now a thing of the past.

Since the inauguration of The Galeries Lafayette in 1922, 'dress particular' women of to-day can see the very last word in style, distinction and feminine refinement in the salons of the Galeries.

Even that subtle Parisian atmosphere is evident in our store in Regent Street.

We are in constant touch with Paris & receive daily the Latest Paris Novelties

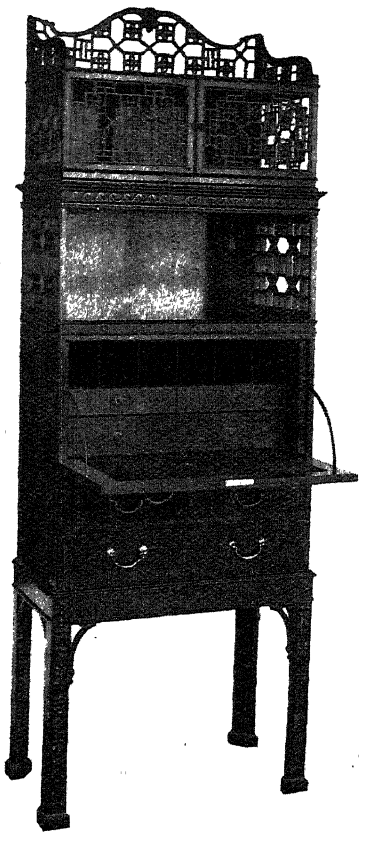
THE OLD-WORLD HOUSE

ITS FURNITURE AND DECORATION

By HERBERT CESCINSKY



"THE OLD-WORLD HOUSE" has been written to meet a general demand for a book dealing with decoration and antique furniture, which is authoritative, written by a recognised expert on the subject, yet dealing only with such examples as the modest collector can acquire, and with the decoration of the middle-class house as distinct from the mansion or the palace.

PRESS OPINIONS.

"Mr. Cescinsky's practical knowledge of the craft of cabinet-making . . . . his mastery of the historical development both of structure and taste, all stand him in good stead in his task of instructing the reader who seeks, in a modest way, to become a 'collector.'"

—The Burlington Magazine.

"The amount of interesting matter which is crowded into these two volumes is surprising. They form easily the most comprehensive work of its kind which has been published for many years."—The Observer.

"Regarded as a handbook of English Furniture, written for the Collector in a chatty strain, 'The Old-World House' is excellent, and its 700 odd illustrations are chosen with discrimination."—The Spectator.

In two volumes, crown quarto, bound in quarter morocco with gilt tops, full library style. Containing 700 illustrations from photographs of rare examples of furniture, with a photogravure frontispiece in each volume.

Price £3 10s. net

(By post 1/3 extra).

A handsome 6 pp. prospectus will be sent on application.
